- B. If you are entering NRHA sanctioned classes, you must send your NRHA membership and horses NRHA license number with your entries.
- C. Warm up Pen: Please be in the warmup pen at least 10 mins prior to your class. The Warm up pen is located at the car park end of the arena. If you stop or are waiting to enter the arena, please stand in the middle of the circle or on the side.
- D. Open pen rules: Right circles at the top of the pen, left circles the bottom, slower moving riders to go in the centre of the circle (so that riders can lope fast circles), no stopping or standing in the centre – move slightly off centre so the circling riders can still circle. Circling will usually go for about 20-30 minutes and then riders will move to run downs. Run straight down the pen, rather than diagonal angles. Open pens may be limited in the number of horses permitted at one time.
- E. Gate rules: Please keep the gate clear for bit checks and the next horse entering the pen. We only allow trainers and or horse hands to watch from the warm up arena, all other spectators must go into the stands and or the bar area.
- F. Show attire: The NRHA Handbook outlines the attire required for showing; when you enter the arena to show, you must be wearing a western hat or safety helmet, long sleeved western shirt with sleeves, buttoned down and boots and your horse must have a western saddle and western bridle. Failure to have correct attire upon entering the arena will result in a no score, however losing your hat within a run does not attract a penalty.
- G. Competitor Number: Failing to wear your show number can result in a $50 fine. Please pin your number to the left hand side of your saddle pad. It is also permitted to have it pinned on the riders back
- H. Kids at the show: We welcome kids at our shows, they are our next potential members, please make sure that they are supervised by an adult at all times when around the arena. Please refrain kids from running around the spectator area so that others are comfortable and to avoid spooking the horse while showing
- I. Presentations: Be astride your saddled horse or mounted wearing your show attire for presentations.
- J. Animal welfare: Whilst the committee does not feel that there are any problems with animal abuse or welfare in reining in Australia, this is a gentle reminder to be very mindful of your behaviour with your horse in any public environment. Many people are not familiar with western riding/attire and may not understand the appearance and use of spurs or western bits. Animal welfare groups are becoming more and more active and it is necessary to be very mindful of this – something that you may not take offense at, they may! It is also good to remember that most mobile phones have video capability now, so you may be recorded without your knowledge – this is especially the case with trainers – many people may be recording your schooling.
- K. Show feedback and dealing with the committee and volunteers. The show committee and volunteers work tirelessly to ensure each show runs as smooth as possible. As our committee and volunteers are not paid for the time they spend organising and running these events, please ensure that you treat them with respect and decency. It's a tough job so please help where you can. If you have feedback that can wait till after the show, please email us at nswrha@gmail.com and we will respond promptly. The show representative is usually the President or Vice President, please see them if you have an issue that needs to be resolved on the day.
- L. Unsportsman like behaviour will not be tolerated and will be dealt with as per the NRHA rules.
- M. All horses are to be ridden, saddled and bridled at all times during an event in all areas including carpark

(Excluding freestyle classes). Youth riders must wear an approved riding helmet unless written consent has been received from a parent

- N. A rider is responsible for their own ineligibilities. If ineligible NSW RHA has the right to exclude the rider from high points and will not be refunded entry fees for those incorrectly entered classes. Riders will also forfeit any placings and prize monies earned should the ride run the class before the show secretary notices the error in entry.
