Terms and Show Conditions

(Refer to 2022 NRHA Handbook and NSW RHA rules)

1. NRHA prize monies is for NRHA approved sanctioned classes only (except Youth), and is for valid up to date NRHA members only as per NRHA payback schedules for 2022
2. All competitors must have a competitor number to enter the arena, failure to have this will result in a $25 fine to the competitor/ and or horse owner
3. Judges Fee applies to all classes (expect Para Reining and Youth and green reiner) in line with NRHA rules for 2021
4. Bit inspections can occur in any class and will occur after you have completed your pattern, these would be performed by the judge unless advised otherwise
5. Horses that are entered in concurrent classes will only be required to run once, the score will count for all classes in the concurrent event. There will also only be one judges fee and media fee would be payable
6. All riders and horses who enter NRHA sanctioned classes must be financial members of the NRHA and hold current memberships and licenses as required to compete
7. All entries for NRHA sanctioned classes require a copy of the horse competition license, if applicable the horse owners NRHA current membership card as well as the competitors current membership card. Failure to provide this before the show will result in the horse and competitor being scrapped from all classes entered
8. All riders must hold a valid NSW RHA membership to compete in any show which is managed by NSW RHA for insurance purposes. Failure to have a NSW RHA membership will result in horse and competitor being scrapped from all classes entered.
9. Event membership for NSW RHA does not include entry for NSW RHA highpoints.
10. A waiver must be signed for 2021 before entering the arena to show
11. Prize money won is paid to competitors in accordance with the 2021 NRHA payback schedules
12. Competitors who hold NSW RHA and NRHA membership and enter sanctioned classes are automatically entered into NSW RHA highpoints (High points are awarded if 3 shows or more are run in a year). High points awarded fall subject to the NSW RHA rules
13. NSW RHA high points will be in accordance with classes as defined by NSW RHA rules. E.g Youth 14-18 and Youth under 13 will be grouped for the purpose of NSW RHA high points
14. All NRHA approved sanctioned classes are run in accordance with the 2021 NRHA handbook. As such all horse owners and competitors agree to these rules upon entering classes
15. Cancellation Policy:
 - a. AT THE SHOW - Competitors which scratch from classes after the draw has been posted for any reason forfeit all monies paid to enter the class(es)
 - b. PRIOR TO SHOW - Refunds are given upon the receipt of a vet certificate and or doctors certificate which can be provided before the show commences
16. Riders who enter the youth class 13 and under are required to wear a helmet while in the arena for insurance purposes
17. Riders are responsible for checking their own eligibilities under the Oceanic Eligibility policy via Reiner Suite, should a competitor or horse enter a class they are not eligible for, they then forfeit placings and prize money earned in the class run
18. Late & Additional Entry: Late Entry is deemed 'Late' when a horse entry that has not previously been entered is requested to be entered after the closing date of show entries. 'Late' entries will be accepted after the closing date and will incur a late fee of $50 in addition to all other entry fees.

2022 Oceania Eligibility used// Pattern allocation has been done based on the 2022 NRHA handbook
